THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

THE POWER OF MILITARY COMMANDERS IN THE SOUTH—OFFICIAL OPINION OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

We lay before our readers to-day, in extenso, one of the most important documents that has ever emanated from an executive office—the official opinion of the Attorney General of the United States in regard to the powers of the military commandants in the South under the recent reconstruction statutes. This official and authoritative interpretation of the law was rendered necessary by the diverse and, in many cases, latitudinarian construction given to these laws by the military officers selected by the President to execute their provisions. This opinion is supplementary to the one already promulgated, which had reference chiefly to the powers conferred upon the commandants of military districts in reference to the registration of voters, and to the qualifications of electors in the Southern States as required by the act of Congress.

The opinion published to-day refers generally to the authority conferred upon these generals commanding districts in the South, and particularly to their functions in regard to the removal and appointment of civil officers in any of the States included in their several military jurisdictions.

The opinion of the Attorney General, under the circumstances is entitled to the same consideration as the law itself. It is the authorized explanation and interpretation of the law from the highest recognized law officer of the Government, and as such should be made the rule of conduct of those officers who have been appointed by the President to execute the law. The Attorney General decides that the legislation referred to clearly contemplates two distinct governments in each of the ten Southern States named in the acts of Congress—the one military the other civil; that while both are treated as provisional until new civil governments shall be constituted in each of these States, the province of the military government thus created is only "to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder, and violence, and to punish, or cause to be punished, all disturbers of the public peace and criminals;" in other words, that these military commanders are nothing more nor less than the conservators of the public peace and the officers authorized to see that every citizen entitled to vote for the new constitution of these disfranchised States is allowed to exercise his privilege.

Thus far and no further the law extends. Beyond this the acts of the Generals in command are simply, and without qualification, unauthorized and unwarrantable usurpations. Under the law they can neither unmake or make, neither remove nor appoint a single civil officer of any grade whatever. They are sent into the several districts merely to preserve to each citizen the rights of person and property he possesses under the laws under which he lives, and have no power to create new rights or to exercise either legislative or judicial functions, except in cases of crime, when they may organize under and according to the laws "military commissions" for the trial and punishment of offenders.

This opinion will be read with interest by the people North and South, who are anxious for a restoration of real peace and union upon the basis of absolute political equality. There are some of the Radical leaders who will assail it with partizan virulence, but its calm, plain, straightforward, common-sense arguments will produce conviction among the masses, that the reconstruction measures passed by Congress do not warrant the outrages now being perpetrated by the military commandants in the South, nor the construction put upon them in the popular harangues of Radical partizans everywhere.—National Intelligencer.

CIRCULAR OF THE GENERAL AGENT OF THE PEABODY EDUCATIONAL FUND.

1. The aim of the Agent will be to encourage and aid common schools in the South; that is, schools established, supported and superintended by the Southern people themselves. Apart from this leading object, the founding and maintenance of schools will come not within his plan.

2. Usually, appropriations in moderate amounts will be made where such schools are languishing, or are liable to be suspended for want of the means of support. Similar aid, if necessary, will be given in places unsupplied with schools, whenever the citizens shall introduce them, and undertake their support. All such aid, however, is to be regarded as temporary.

3. In selecting schools to be aided, or places to be supplied with them, those will be preferred in which the destitution is greatest, and the number to be benefitted largest.

4. Normal schools, or schools having normal departments, will receive particular attention. A small number of these, furnishing the most perfect models of instruction, will be considered as more important than a larger number of an inferior character.—Here also it is the purpose of the Agent to aid others in their work, and not to assume the support of such schools.

5. Funds will not be given to literary or to professional schools as such. Special arrangements may sometimes be made with these, for the purpose of encouraging the industrial arts, or for the education of teachers.

6. The Agent will not identify his efforts with those of any other organization by placing funds at the disposal of its managers, but, in any connection he may hold with benevolent or religious societies, he will pursue his own specific object by such means and appliances as he shall elect.

7. At present, there will be no agencies, except a few in which the services rendered will be gratuitous.

8. The Agent will not, except in a few special exceptional cases, have occasion to employ teachers. He can, therefore, aid such in obtaining places, only by giving their names to school committees.

B. SEARS,
General Agent.

A man who can't swim may keep his head above water by tying his handkerchief around his hat, placing his hat top downwards in the water, and resting his chin on it. All persons before they fall into the water are advised to prepare their hats in the way above mentioned.

CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE

INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

INCORPORATED MAY 1846,

ASSETS OVER

15,000,000,00

INCOME OVER $6,500,000,00,

The Largest Life Insurance Company in the World!

IT HAS NO STOCK CAPITAL; THE FIFTEEN Million Dollars all belong to the Policy holders, which now exceed 44,000, and not withstanding the payment of a sixty per cent dividend last year, there is now a surplus of

OVER 6,000,000,00,

It has had, through its entire history, the smallest average expenses, and, therefore, it is the safest and

CHEAPEST LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY IN EXISTENCE.

The Ætna Life's General Agent of N. C., in last week's paper, made a statement as follows: "The ratio of the Ætna's expenses to premiums and total income is less than that of the Connecticut Mutual." He surely has not seen the State of New York's Commissioners Report, ending Dec. 31, 1866: "Ratio of expenses to premiums and interest, Connecticut Mutual 11.11, Ætna 16.60; to premiums only, Connecticut Mutual 13.44, Ætna 17.59." "That Company in which the average expenses are the lowest and the rate of interest obtained on investments is the highest (other things being equal,) affords life insurance at the least cost; also the Company is the safest in which the largest number is insured."

THAT COMPANY IS THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL.

This Company gives the Policy holder a credit or forbearance of one half his premium, and in case of early death, the number of dividends will always equal the number of out-standing credits. All policies non-forfeitable by their terms, or may be made so at the option of the insured. For further information apply to,

Grateful for the flattering patronage with which we have heretofore been so kindly favored, we respectfully solicit an increased share of the patronage of the citizens of Raleigh and the surrounding country. Without specially gassing, we deem it sufficient to say, that our stock mostly embraces such articles as are usually found in Family Groceries. Most of our goods have been recently bought in New York and Baltimore, for cash, and we hope to be able to sell them on satisfactory terms. In addition to our stock of Groceries, &c., we have a fine lot of

HATS AND READY MADE CLOTHING

and a splendid lot of Confectioneries, consisting of

PLAIN AND FANCY CANDIES, RAISINS, ORANGES, FIGS, NUTS AND BRANDY PEACHES, &c., all of which will be sold on reasonable terms.

We have also a fine lot of genuine Durham Smoking Tobacco, which we can implicitly recommend to "those who smoke." Please call and see us.

We will pay particular attention to all consignments of Produce and Merchandise entrusted to our care and will endeavor to sell at the best market prices. Consignments are respectfully solicited. By a prompt and close attention to business and fair dealing with all, we hope to merit and receive a share of public patronage.

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

Address, Madame H. A. PERRIGO,

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERed Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the stomach and bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally. For the loss of appetite is the most obnoxious and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable and in fact whenever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston B. Jones, one of the most accomplished and well known Physicians in the Southern States, testifies to its great value, as does many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION.

Our readers on yesterday had an opportunity of reading the recent opinion of Attorney General Stanbery. It requires no comment—needs no explanatory remarks to make it understood. It is one of the most lucid, comprehensive, able, legal arguments we recollect ever to have read. It is freeer from unnecessary verbiage, merely legal lore, and especially political bias, than any document of the kind which has in late years been laid before the country. He investigates the laws before him as a lawyer only, and applies their principles in answering the questions propounded to him, with a directness and point of an honest law officer, who has no party to serve, but his country. To our mind the document is admirable, and every citizen should read it carefully. Mr. Stanbery makes his points so clear, he leaves no room to hesitate or doubt the correctness of his positions, and those who attempt to to criticize it adversely will find it to be a difficult task.

We repeat, what we have said before, that it is singularly unfortunate for the quiet and harmony of the country, that this able opinion with the instructions of the President, had not been fully prepared, printed and submitted to the District Commanders for their approval and acceptance at the time of their appointment. Under the circumstances, if they have erred in judgment and action, as we have no doubt they have, neither their intelligence nor their motives can be called in question. Mr. Stanbery does not doubt their motives or purposes. He believes their object is to preserve peace and order, but in the midst of peace and general order, he cannot see, nor can the country see the necessity of assuming such extraordinary powers, in order to prevent a state of things which they have no ground to expect. Yet there is a strong apology for the District Commanders, in the fact, that they adopted the general construction put upon the Reconstruction Acts, by the public at large, as well as by men of learning and members of Congress. That opinion, it is true, was not based upon a close investigation of the practical workings of the law, or of a close analysis of its provisions, as Mr. Stanbery has given it, but upon the speeches in Congress, and the powerful veto message of the President, which attacked its constitutionality, and which portrayed in the strongest colors the abuses which might grow out of it.

But what will come of the opinion? We fear there is too little sound sense, cool judgment and political virtue among the leaders of the Radical party, to percieve the force of Mr. Stanbery's opinion and the necessity there is for a general acquiescence in its doctrines. The engines of mischief are already fired and in motion. The Washington Chronicle, N. Y. Tribune and Herald, and Thaddeus Stevens, all of whom constitute the very embodiment of mischief, commotion and strife, in anticipation, yet in ignorance of Mr. Stanbery's real position, are out upon him. Mr. Stevens' letter to the Chronicle is a mere outpouring of bile, without sense or reason, and the articles of the N. Y. Herald are precisely of the inflamatory and incendiary character, which that same paper employed in 1860 and '61 to excite the nation to war and bloodshed.

The calm dignity, and the powerful reasoning of Mr. Stanbery, when his opinion comes to be read by the masses, may possibly check the furor, which the enemies of peace may be disposed to stir up. The Commanders themselves may be patriotic and peace-loving enough not only to acquiesce in, but to approve the doctrines of the opinion, and should Congress assemble, the intelligence and moderation of such men as Sherman, Fessenden, Howard, Turnbull, Bingham, and others, may control the discordance and ultraism of that body and once more restore order and law to the country.

REGISTRATION IN VIRGINIA.

The registration of voters commenced in Virgina on Monday last. It is also going on in several other States of the South.—The first day's registration in Virginia exhibited great anxiety on the part of the colored voters of the towns and cities to register, while in the country they were less prompt. The whites, both in town and country, manifest great indifference. Perhaps they are waiting to overcome their objections to the plan. Good order was preserved, and we judge is likely to be. We consider that any man, entitled to registration, is blind indeed, to his own and the country's good, who hesitates to register.—We can conceive of no good reason which can prompt any man to this course under existing circumstances.

It is of the first importance that the District Commanders should give ample time for the registration. Should they confine the registration to a few days, thousands will fail to register. In the South where the mails are so laggard and where the people have been indifferent to passing events, thousands have not yet heard of the programme, or having heard know nothing or but little of the matters involved.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE'S OPINION.

We are indebted to the Standard office for slips of the opinion rendered by Chief Justice Chase in the Circuit Court here, in the case of Shortridge et al. vs. Macon. We were not advised that the slips would be furnished us, hence of the hour received we had nearly prepared the matter for this issue. It involves matters of great interest to our merchants, and will appear in the Sentinel to-morrow.

PRICES OF LANDS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Messrs. Zimmer & Co., of the Guilford Land Agency, at Greensboro', (who by the way ought to advertise their business and secure fairly the influence of the press,) will give information to all persons North and South, as to the prices of lands and their description, production, &c., in North Carolina.

Information requisite to form a correct opinion can be obtained from them or every newspaper editor in the State. The quantity of good lands ready for market in North Carolina is immense. Lands can be bought which produce fairly, cotton, corn, oats, potatoes and peas, at from $5 to $50 and as high as $100, according to quality, location and improvements. Lands for the cultivation of the Scuppernong or other indigenous grapes, making from 1,000 to 1500 gallons of wine per acre, can be bought from $5 to $15. Also lands for the making of corn, cotton or turpentine from $1,50 to $10. These three classes are found in the Eastern counties. In the middle counties of the State, lands producing cotton, corn, oats and wheat, or tobacco, corn, oats and wheat, can be bought from $5 to $25 per acre. Thin lands in the same region can be bought for less. Beyond the mountains lands for grazing or the cultivation of the cereals and fruits, are bought from $3 to $25. The intrinsic value, locality and improvements regulate the price.

Mining lands are abundant and where undeveloped are bought very low. Mines already in operation are sold often far below their real value. Lands supplied withabundant waterpower and at the same time good for cultivation are often sold at merely nominal prices. A few hundred dollars in the possession of an honest, experienced and laboring farmer, will purchase land enough in North Carolina to make him independent in a few years. In climate, soil, variety of products, healthiness, sobriety, honesty and obedience to law and the preservation of peace among the people, no portion of the globe is superior to North Carolina. We invite honest, industrious, energetic, sober people with sound morals, to come and dwell with us from all nations and peoples, who love liberty and law.

Cannot something be done to prevent the Legislature of this State from re-assembling in August, and consuming fifty or seventy-five thousand dollars in the way of per diem and mileage, and besides, probably, appropriating a large sum of money for purposes not actually necessary.—Charlotte Democrat.

We feel very sensibly with our cotemporary, the necessity of a rigid economy in the disbursement of the public funds. Our people are too poor and too much in debt already to bear heavy taxation. If the public interests do not require the assembling of the Legislature in August next, then it is plain it ought only to meet for the purposes of doing what is necessary and adjourning sine die. As the law now stands it is obliged to meet, if but to adjourn, i. e. if we have any law in North Carolina or any respect for the law. There is no legal authority in the State either to prevent its meeting or to authorize it not to meet. Nor has the military authority any right or power derived from the law making power of the country to prevent its meeting peaceably. This our cotemporary will see is made plain by the Attorney General.

We learn that a number of the intelligent members of the Legislature believe, that it is highly important to the public interests that the Legislature should hold a short session. The cost of a Legislature is not as heavy as our cotemporary makes it, unless the body should prove recreant to the public interests, and simply remain in session to spend money. If the Legislature were to meet and remain in session only ten or fifteen days, $1800 per day, would pay the entire expense for all purposes. Nor is our cotemporary correct in saying that if the Legislature met, it would not be permitted to act as a free body. We have no idea that Gen. Sickles would permit military interference.

THE GROVE ESTATE.—J. Hervey Ewing, Esq., a lawyer of Baltimore, will visit Europe about the 1st of September for the purpose of securing a large estate which is said to have been held in reversion in Holland or Germany, for the lineal descendants of one Hans Graf, who it is said fled from the persecution waged against the Menonites in the 17th century and migrated to America and settled in Lancaster County, Pa., in 1717. The descendants of Graf are said to be numerous, are known in the particular sections where they reside, as Graf's, Groff's and Grove's, all deriving their lineage from Hans Graf. The expenses of Mr. Ewing's researches will be considerable, and he desires that all the legal heirs to this estate, of whatever name, who will make a claim on it, will send in their names and proof of their title to him before the 1st of Sept. and bear their share in the expense.—We advertise therefore that all the Graf's, Groff's and Grove's or heirs by other names among our readers, who desire to take a chance in this lottery to correspond with Mr. Ewing.

SYMPATHY.—The pretended excessive sympathy of the North for the poor negro in the South, favoring confiscation for his benefit, finds no place in their bosoms for the Northern negroes, who, in five cases out of six, are worse off than Southern blacks. Yet Northern sympathy seems to be really looking to the poor whites of that region. Mr. Wade now thinks that confiscation or a division of the land, is needed in the North as well as the South, and a writer in the New York Tribune, thinks that the public debt should be repudiated for the benefit of the poor whites. Thus we go.

LOOK AT YOUR NATIONAL BANK NOTES.—The following National Banks have failed, or are in process of liquidation: Venango National Bank, Franklin, Pa; Tennessee National Bank, Memphis, Tenn; First National Bank, Attica, N. Y.; First National Bank, Medina, N. Y.; First National Bank, Columbia, Mo; First National Bank, Carondalet, Mo; Merchants' National Bank, Washington, D. C.

Thad Stevens has written a letter urgently recommending a July session of Congress.

LETTER FROM HON. Z. B. VANCE.

Being unable to accept the invitation some time since extended to address the colored people of Nash and Edgecombe, ex-Gov. Vance has sent the Committee the following excellent letter, regretting his inability to oblige them.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 16, 1867.

To Messrs. Jason Cooper, Isar Archbell and others, colored citizens of Edgecombe and Nash Counties:

SIRS:—Your call upon Rev. Mr. Williams, Ex-Gov. Wise and myself to address you on the questions now before the country, at such time and place as we might select, has been before me for some time. Hoping that I might be able to find an opportunity to comply, I have this long delayed replying; but finding that there is little or no certainty of my being permitted by business engagements to do so, I have concluded to decline, and to answer your invitation, as you requested, through the public press.

I frankly confess, my friends, that I did not hope greatly to profit you, had I been able to speak to you in person. Such industrious efforts have been made to make you think ill of those who were lately your masters, and to cause you to regard with distrust everything which they might do or say, that I had little hope of making you believe in either my sincerity or good will. With some honorable exceptions, the great mass of your people are becoming widely estranged from their former owners, and it is now hardly possible for us to prevent it, melancholy as it is. Time will, however, soon show you where your true interests are. Your good sense will soon enable you to see that neither your distant Northern friends, nor their disreputable camp-followers among the Southern whites, who are so zealous in your behalf now, can be of as much value to you as the true and consistent men of the South, with whom you were born and raised.

However many friends a man may have abroad, he is ill at ease if his neighbor is his enemy. "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself," is not only a divine command, but is full of worldly wisdom. If you want a kindness, you don't go to Massachusetts for it, but to your neighbor; if you want employment, you don't go to a ranting politician,—you go to your neighbor; in short, in sickness or in health, in prosperity or adversity, in joy or sorrow, we are dependent for more than half of that which renders life endurable upon our neighbors.—Your neighbors and your employers are those against whom they are now seeking to array you, and I greatly fear they will succeed at first. Your old masters do not come to you eating their own words and giving the lie to every profession of their lives; nor do they come betraying the rights and liberties of their own color to ingratiate themselves with yours. Many others do, however, and the majority of your people will believe them, until they learn a very plain and simple truth: that a bad man among the whites will be just as bad, or worse, among the blacks; and the change of sides is far from making an honest man of a hypocrite and a trickster.

Much damage will doubtless be done before your people see the designs of those who wish to lead them now, but I hope soon for better things. When actual and bitter experience has opened your eyes, then will be our time to address you with a hope of success. When you come to know the true power of capital and labor combined in friendly effort, how dependant the one is upon the other, and how ruinous to both is enmity and distrust, then I shall hope to see the day when slavery shall be abolished in fact, both for black and white, and when, animated by a common spirit of industry, harmony, and love of country and of human progress, all shall labor to make our State blossom as the rose, and turn her waste places into seats of refinement and delight. My word for it, my friends, there is not a good man among your former masters, but prays for the hour to come when he may, without disfranchising himself, work for you! As you are to be citizens, we want you to be intelligent citizens; as you are to be our neighbors, we want you to be kind and loving neighbors. In every aspect of the case, it is our true interest to help you fit yourselves for the new life to which you are called. If you will permit us, we will do it.

Thanking you for the confidence your invitation manifests, in my desire to do you good at all events, and trusting that the same quiet and commendable spirit which characterized your race during four years of terrible civil war, may continue to animate you during the times through which we are passing, in all good feeling and amity, I remain,

Most sincerely your friend,
ZEBULON B. VANCE.

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I read from the Standard of June 15th, as follows:

"President Johnson, in a proclamation over his own name, charged Mr. Davis with the horrid crime of assassination, and offered a large reward for his capture. He was captured and the reward was paid.—Mr. Johnson has not to this day withdrawn the charge. It stands with all its blasting force against the character of Mr. Davis."

Great efforts have been made, money paid and false and perjured witnesses examined, to prove the complicity of Mr. Davis in the assassination. Not even the shadow of evidence tending to prove a knowledge of it, is produced or can be. We are wont to put our sins upon the shoulders of others. We know, and the world knows, Mr. Davis had no knowledge of the assassination. We do not think W. W. Holden had; and if he had, we have no proof of it. But we do know that a candidate for Congress, while canvassing his District, charged W. W. Holden with using language calculated to incite Booth to the horrid deed. We do know that he charged that there was more proof of Holden's complicity in the assassination, than there was of Mr. Davis. He charged that Holden was the first man to hint or suggest assassination. To sustain his charge he read from the Standard of 1863, where W. W. Holden asks, "Who will plot for the head of Abe Lincoln?"

This charge was made by a candidate for Congress, and before all the people. "To this day the charge has not been withdrawn" nor denied by Holden.

The cry for the head of President Lincoln was first raised by the Standard, and in that paper of —— 1863, "it stands with all its blasting force against the character of" W. W. Holden. JUSTICE.

P. S. Instead of the X. P-G's denying ever asking in his paper, "Who will plot for the head of Abe Lincon?" Instead of denying that he called him "Abraham, the tyrant—Abraham, the fool," &c., &c., he will indulge in abuse of the Senior Editor and the candidate alluded to. J.

A gentleman in Leesburg in an advertisement to those indebted to him, to "pay up," assures them that the issue with him is "money or the bankrupt law!" This is another issue forced upon the South!

Mr. Flanders, the new Governor of Louisiana, appointed by Gen'l Sheridan, made a speech in New Orleans on Friday, in which he opposed confiscation, and also opposed a project guaranteeing half the officers to colored men.

General Longstreet is about to stop political letter-writing,—with the unanimous consent of all his old friends.

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I desire to say a few things through the columns of the Sentinel; not that I am simple enough to believe that my opinions are of any interest to any one, but simply to gratify a freak of my own, and furthermore, because I believe I represent the views of the true Union party. I claim to have been a Union man before and during the war, but perhaps not an entirely consistent one. I have no inclination to forsake the peaceful pursuits of agriculture to enter the arena of politics. Somehow, I have acquired an aversion to politicians. I like patriotism much better than politics. I conceive that there is as great a difference between a politician and a patriot, as there is between a mountain and a mole-hill. The one will make great personal sacrifices for the good of his country,—the other will sacrifice his country's good to accomplish his own selfish ends.

The war party of the South alleged that if we were defeated in the struggle for independence, that general confiscation would take place. I didn't believe a word of it. The Government, as yet, has shown a little more magnanimity towards us than war men anticipated; but at the same time not so much as true Union men expected. So you see that while the Secessionist is deceived as to the result, the Unionist is also. I believed the Southern States would be received back as prodigals; and that by acts of kindness our Northern brethren would heap "coals of fire" upon our heads,—thus making us ashamed of our evil deeds, and attaching us more firmly than ever to the Union. But while I am somewhat disappointed at the course of Congress, I am much more disappointed at the course of certain Southern men, styling themselves "Southern loyalists." They are becoming better Union men (?) than the preservers of the Union even. Like the Indian's tree, they are becoming so straight that they lean over. They seem to have more bitter and malignant feelings than Northern Radicals even. "Southern loyalists" seem more anxious to confiscate than "Northern loyalists." Why is this? Is it to revenge themselves for oppression, real or imaginary, or is it to get office outside the State? The one motive is as improper as the other. No man should seek office outside of his State, and if Union men were oppressed during the war, is that a reason why they should retaliate, now that they think they have the Government to back them? Is such a course of conduct noble? Is it manly? Cannot they accord honesty of purpose to their erring secession neighbors—at least to those who went into the breach and fought for their principles? The man who cannot do this, becomes subject to the charge of bigotry himself. Why not say to their secession neighbors, "Sir, you trampled on my feelings during the war because of my Union principles. I now have the advantage of you. My principles have triumphed, I can return good for evil. I extend to you the hand of fellowship and good feeling?" If the Secessionist has a spark of nobleness in his soul, he will feel himself whipped, humbled. If he has not the nobleness to appreciate such conduct, there will be none the less a noble action performed.

But, Messrs. Editors, I must question the Union recopd of some of these "Southern Loyalists." Did not some of them hold office under the Confederate Government? Are not some of them men who will wait for the tide rather than stem the current? Are these the men to denounce as disloyal, and in league with secessionists, such as Andrew Johnson, John Baxter and Ben. Perry?—They were Union men in "times that tried men's souls." I fear I will have to part company with my Union friends, but by so doing I do not part with my Union principles. Let Union men, everywhere, throw aside party spirit and revenge, and with magnanimous souls, obeying the injunction of our Divine Master, do "good for evil," and glory in the opportunity of so doing.—If secessionists do not meet them on half way ground, and if peace and concord is not restored, let the fault be with them; and while we are trying to get back into the Union, let us have a Union of sentiment, as well as a Union of States. L. E.

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.—We were shocked to learn yesterday morning the sudden death of another of our well known citizens, Cicero S. Primrose, in the prime of life, with but slight warning, breathed his last at 6 o'clock, A. M. His disease was a congestive chill of virulent type which baffled all the skill of his attending physicians. Truly, life is only one short step from death.

Lieut. Primrose, during the war, as an officer of Co. B, 10th Regt. N. C. Troops, was well known to the writer, who had the honor to command the regiment. He performed the duties of a soldier faithfully till the end of the war.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

In New Castle, Delaware, last week, a colored man who had killed his brother in a drunken rage, was publicly pilloried, then whipped with sixty lashes, forced to pay a fine of five thousand dollars, and then taken to prison to be confined for life.

1,500 yards Silk Embroidered Grenadines, in new style, worth $2 50, for $1 00.
Plain Black and solid Colored Grenadines, at correspondingly low prices.
These goods are just the thing for the season and much needed, as they have been very scarce and high.
2,000 yards neat, pretty Dress Goods, in all kinds of thin fabrics, worth 50 to 75 cents, for 25 to 37 cents
The best article for Traveling Dresses I ever saw, worth $1 50 for 62½ to 75 cents.
The most desirable shades of gray and drab Alpacas, at 75 cents to $1 00 per yard.
8-4 White and Black Crape Morets. Also Grenadines.
5,000 yards Black Alpacas: positively the greatest bargains ever offered in this market, at 50, 62½ 75, 87½ cts., and $1; worth in every instance double the money.
3,000 yards Black Silks, of the most approved makes, in Taffetas and Gro Grain, for 1 30, 1 45, 1 50, 1 75, 2 00, and $2,50. These prices are from 50 cents to $1 00 per yard less than any similar goods have been offered in this market.
1,000 Parasols, in every style and variety, about half price—say from $1 50 to $2 50.
Also, Sea-side and Promenade Parasols, very desirable for travelling, watering places, &c.
The largest and finest assortment of Real Point Lace Goods ever offered in Petersburg, for less than half their value

Real Point Collars!
Real Point Collars and Cuffs!
Real Point Setts!
Real Point Lace Trimmed Handkerchiefs!

One real Point Applique Lace Shawl, a very valuable article worth $250.
10,000 yards of magnificent Lawns, from 20 to 50 cents, worth double the price.
The best Lawns ever offered in Petersburg, for 25 cents.
1,000 yards Buff Linen Lawn, for Ladies' morning dresses; the most desirable goods in the market.
Also, 5,000 yards of Spanish Linen Linen Coating, Linen Drills and Canvas Ducks, at 25 to 50 cents per yard, worth 50 cts., to $1.
Also, 100 pieces Canton Matting from 37½ to 65 cents per yard. Among them is the XX Imperial, the best Matting made.
It is not necessary to add more, nor to say I am selling lower than any one else. The public are the best judges of this, and I hope they will give their verdict substantially in my favor by their liberal patronage, and I will assure them I will leave no effort untried to please.

PATENT IMPROVED METHOD OF
SINKING WELLS, OR
THE NEW LABOR SAVING
ECONOMICAL PUMPS.

HAVING PURCHASED THE ENTIRE AND exclusive right to the patent improved method of sinking Wells, for the State of North Carolina, we desire to have a good and reliable Agent in every county of the State.

As it is desirable for every family to have an abundant supply of water, on their own premises, for convenience, safety and economy, the sale of this Pump offers a fine opening for an enterprising man in each county, to engage in profitable business.

OUR PRICES ARE FOR No. 1 SIZE, $25;
No. 2, $30,
WITH A LIBERAL DISCOUNT TO AGENTS.

We have a No. 2 Pump in operation in front of our Store, No. 22, Pollock Street, which was sunk in an hour, and supplies about 3,000 GALLONS of pure water per day. They can also be seen in operation at the Gaston House, and at other places in Newbern; also at Kinston, Beaufort, Morehead city, and at many other places.

This is the cheapest and most speedy mode of obtaining water in any section, as you can exclude any stream of water reached, which is not satisfactory, and obtain only that which is most desirable.

ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS.
OPEN JUNE 1.

This favorite and delightful watering-place, having undergone thorough renovation, is prepared to receive visitors. The owners have made every effort in the outfit and equipment to render the place more than ever attractive to those in quest of recreation, while to the invalid its medicinal waters hold out new hopes of health. It may be confidently claimed for them that they have in a great many cases relieved, and in many more cases cured, the following diseases: SCROFULA, and many chronic CUTANEOUS diseases; CHRONIC THROAT, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, CHRONIC DIARRHŒA, DROPSY, AFFECTIONS OF KIDNEY and BLADDER, and PILES; and, in connection with the Hot Baths, CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

As an appetizer, a tonic, and general restorative to an enfeebled constitution, it is perhaps unrivalled amongst mineral waters. The proprietors have engaged for the approaching season
A VERY SUPERIOR BAND OF MUSIC,
both for the LAWN and the BALL-ROOM.
THE BILLIARD AND BOWLING SALOONS, both for ladies and gentlemen, will be found in more complete order than ever before.

From the very extensive preparations now making at all the leading Virginia Springs, a heavy travel is anticipated, and, we think, will be attracted. It shall be the aim of the undersigned to keep their establishment FULLY UP TO THE FORMER; and they hope to see a renewal of the social re-unions which in former years lent such a charm to these mountain retreats.

Passengers by the Virginia Central railroad get off the cars at GOSHEN Depot. Right (8) miles of ranging over a smooth road lands them at the Springs.

BOARD, $3.50 PER DAY; $90 PER MONTH.

We have secured the efficient services of Captain WILLIAM H. SALE, so long and favorably known to the public, in connection with these Springs.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 1867.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The public will find the Sentinel one of the best mediums of advertising in the State. Its circulation covers a larger area, perhaps, than any other paper.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Thomas Smith, of Petersburg, again offers attractions in the Dry Goods line. See advertisement.

The 18th. annual meeting of the Stockholders of the North Carolina R. R. Company meets at Greensboro on the 11th. of July next.

Mr. Douglass Bell, near the market, offers fine Groceries at cost.

Mr. Towles offers new N. C. Bacon, and Grain Cradles.

Mess. Mitchell, Allen & Co , of Newbern, offer a large stock of Agricultural implements.

The heirs of the late Judge Saunders are notified by the Clerk of the County Court.

Keep in mind the new Pump recently introduced by Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern. We have the pledge from them that in a short time that they will test in this city, the adaptation of the pump to this city and section.

The Commissioners of Claims again appeal to claimants to appear and attend to their interests.

MAYOR'S COURT.—On yesterday, Bill Williams, colored, charged with having committed an assault upon Charity Harris, colored, was returned to the County Court.

It seems that altercations are constantly occurring "betwixt and between our colored bretheren and sisterin." They make up three-fourths of the cases brought before the municipal courts of the South. It does not seem, therefore, that the hopes and expectations of our North brethren, of fierce collisions between the whites and blacks, are likely to occur. If they will quarrel and fight among themselves we cannot help it, but we hope to hear of no collision between whites and blacks.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY STARBUCK.—We have received a full statement of the official proceedings had in the Federal Circuit Court in this city in the case of Mr. Starbuck, which in justice to him we shall take pleasure in publishing as soon as we have space. If the opinion of Chief Justice Chase does not occupy too much space, it shall appear to-morrow.

LIEUT. JNO. T. DEWESE, 8th. Infantry, A. C. S., advertises, at Salisbury, for sealed proposals for fresh beef for the troops from 1st. of July next. We observe that Judge Brooks has appointed John T. Dewese, Raleigh, the Register in Bankruptcy for this District. Is this one and the same person? We presume not, as an officer of the army is inhibited from holding civil office at the same time.

REGISTERS IN BANKRUPTCY.—His Honor Judge Brooks has made the following appointments in bankruptcy. Two will be appointed for the first District, but their appointments have not been officially announced:

2nd. Dist. R. F. Lehman, Newbern, N. C.
3rd. " W. A. Guthrie, Fayetteville, "
4th. " John T. Dewese, Raleigh, "
5th. " T. R. Keough, Greensboro, "
6th. " R. H. Broadfield, Salisbury, "
7th. " Clinton A. Cilley, Lenoir, N. C.

for the Counties this side of the mountains, and R. H. Cannon, of Jackson Co., for the Counties beyond the mountains.

EXPENSE OF NEWSPAPERS.—The New York "Herald" has lately dismissed a large number of employees from its editorial rooms. Some forty men were dismissed in all.—This great reduction in force is owing to the extreme dullness of business. Although the "Herald" is the richest paper in the world, excepting perhaps the London "Times," and receives the most exorbitant prices for advertisements, it cannot stand the pressure, and is compelled to reduce expenses.

Ex-Gov. Wells apparently takes his expulsion from office rather hill sophically, if the following incident reported of him is true. An acquaintance met him on Canal street, and inquired how his contest with the military powers, had terminated. Mr. Wells good humoredly replied: "Badly, sir, badly. I held the four aces, but Flanders had an Arkansaw hand—four jacks and a bowie-knife—and I had to cave."

Deacon Brown lately took occasion to administer a reproof to old Joe for swearing. Joe listened attentively to his words, seemed to appreciate the exhortation, and when he had concluded, replied as follows: "The fact is, deacon, I may swear a great deal, and you may pray a great deal, but neither of us mean anything by it." The deacon alludes to Joe as an instance of total depravity.

A letter from Queretaro says that the Mexican Government will content itself with banishing Maximilian.

For the Sentinel.

CLOVER AND GRASSES.

It is a good sign to observe the attention the short article on clover in your paper, some weeks since, has elicited. Its importance will not be reached by mere discussions, but the more public attention is called to the subject, the more hope there is of practical results, in the form of crops and fat cows.

I have recently come into possession of a fact that is decidedly encouraging. A gentleman in Albemarle County has just cut eight tons of clover hay from a lot of five acres. The land was pronounced poor, and he put a bag of bone dust to the acre and sowed clover seed, and the above is the result, for the first cutting. Probably four tons more may be cut. This hay is worth say twenty dollars per ton for the first crop, and fifteen for the last, in all two hundred and twenty dollars. No other crop could be made to turn out such results, on the same land with the same labor and expense.

The second cutting of clover has the effect of causing horses to slobber, much to their injury, but does not affect cows so seriously, and can be improved by being sprinkled with salt.

No one who visits our markets can hesitate for a moment to see that both the palate and the purse are suffering, in this locality, for want of something that will make good beef and butter. Our fresh meat is a burlesque on beef. There is no regularity whatever in the quality or supply of butter. Probably a third or a half of all the butter consumed in Raleigh comes from the western part of North Carolina, or from the North. Towles' Auction House and Pulliam, Jones & Co., and B. P. Williamson & Co. sell more foreign butter in a day than the Raleigh Market House affords in a week.

This defect is attributable to the want of pasturage in summer and hay in the winter.

The course usually pursued by grass growers is to let certain crops follow each other in rotation. But the most remunerative method is, first, to put say twenty-five to forty loads of manure, or 300 pounds of guano, to the acre, then, when the ground is prepared, sow clover and timothy seed at the same time, say four to six quarts of each to the acre. The first year, if moderately wet, the yield will be very great. The second year there is more clover than timothy, the third the proportion is reversed, and so continues,—and at the end of five or six years it should be turned under. This turning under is equal to a coat of stable manure.

A false idea exists in many localities that hay is only obtainable from meadows. But, with suitable manuring, uplands can be made as productive of these crops as meadows. The yield is usually from one to three tons per acre. At twenty dollars a ton this falls below cotton and tobacco. But it must be remembered that the labor required for producing hay is small compared with that needed for cotton. And while the cotton will injure land, (weakening the manure included,) clover and timothy will benefit land, and if kept on for several years, the land will pass from impoverishment to fatness. And whilst the cotton planter is buying meat to feed his hands the grass grower is raising meat for his, and that at very little labor.

Of course, when clover is mentioned red clover is meant. White clover is indigenous to this latitude. But even a field of native white clover top dressed with wood ashes or ground plaster when this latter can be obtained, will afford a most excellent pasturage for stock of all kinds.

The writer of this is not crazy on the subject of clover, but he confesses to a weakness, or, as some call it, a fondness for good butter, and he is especially anxious to see some of the multitudes of worn out lands in North Carolina reclaimed, and there is not a process so cheap, so remunerative and so certain as clover. H.

DEATH OF HON. R. S. DONNELL.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BEAUFORT COUNTY COURT.

COURT OF PLEAS & QUARTER SESSIONS, BEAUFORT COUNTY.

[JUNE TERM, 1867]

During the sitting of the Court on Tuesday, the following proceedings were had in reference to the death of Hon. Richard S. Donnell.

The following named Justices on the bench, to-wit; Joseph B. Stickney, Chairman; James R. Grist, Thomas D. Smaw, Edmund S. Hoyt, Wm. H. Patrick, Noah W. Guilford, John H. Small, Redding L. Myers, Henry Hodges, Isaiah Respess, and O. W. Telfair.

Thomas Sparrow, Esq., representing the Bar, introduced the following resolutions:

"Information having been received by the Justices of the Court now in session, and by the members of the Bar in attendance upon said Court, of the decease in the town of Newbern, on Monday, the Third day of June, inst., of the Honorable Richard S. Donnell, long a citizen of this town, a representative of the people of this county, a member of this bar, and a Justice of this Court; it is therefore.

Resolved, By the Justices of the Court, and the members of the bar of Beaufort county, that they have heard of the lamented decease of the Honorable R. S. Donnell with the sincerest sorrow.

Resolved, That in his death, the State has sustained the loss of one of her noblest and most disinterested patriots—the Bar one of its most brilliant ornaments—society one of its greatest charms—this community one of its best citizens—this Court one of its chief attractions—the poor a steadfast friend.

Resolved, That in all the relations of life, as a friend, a companion, at the Bar, on the bench, and in our halls of legislation, the deceased was well entitled to receive, as he did receive, the love and affection of all who came within the magic circle of his society; the spontaneous effect of his warm-hearted hospitality, his benevolence, his unselfish friendship, his integrity and his love of truth.

Resolved, That this Court and Bar tender to the surviving relatives of their deceased friend, their sincerest condolence with them in this great affliction.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of the Court, that a copy thereof be published in the Washington Index, and that the Newbern and Raleigh papers be requested to copy."

The resolutions were seconded by Wm. B. Rodman, Esq., in a few touching remarks. He was followed by Fenner B. Satterthwaite, Esq., in a feeling tribute to the memory of the deceased, and he in turn by Hiram E. Stilley, Esq., in remarks appropriate to the occasion.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted and on motion of Mr. Satterthwaite, the Court in further testimony of their respect, adjourned for the day.

The proceedings have been signed by Matthew Shaw, Esq., Hon. E. J. Warren, Hon. Jesse R. Stubbs and David M. Carter, Esq., who were not present in Court.

A negro tournament took place in Harrisonburg last Monday, and wound up in a free fight. The successful Knight was put in the calaboose, and couldn't crown his Queen.

MEXICAN NEWS—TRADE BETWEEN TEXAS AND MEXICO.

GALVESTON, June 19.

A letter from San Luis says that a telegram from Querataro on the 3rd, states that the trial of Maximilian had not been concluded. Sixty ladies in mourning, residing in San Luis, called on President Juarez and prayed for the life of the prisoners of Querataro. The President said that he would do all that he could compatible with justice and his duties.

Two engagements at the capital resulted in favor of the Republicans.

The foreigners advised Marquez to surrender, promising to protect his escape.

The Brownsville Ranchero says that the El Mexicano, of the 12th., reports Santa Anna off Vera Cruz.

It is reported that Maximilian had asked a private interview with Juarez for the purpose of disclosing to him important State secrets.

Maximilian was convicted on the night of the third and sentenced to be shot on the morning of the 4th., with Miramon and Mejia.

Marquez, commanding the city of Mexico, has executed Gen. O'Haran, the Post commander, for treasonable correspondence with the Liberals.—He has also arrested 160 Liberal sympathizers and threatens to execute them and burn the Capitol if Maximilian and his Generals are harmed.

Mejia selected Escobedo as his counsel, who refused to serve, saying he'd see him damned.

Flake's Bulletin has returns from El Paso and other Custom Houses on the Rio Grande, by which it appears that the exports of cotton to Mexico this year are about 10,000 bales. A bonded warehouse has been established at San Antonio. The trade with the interior of Mexico is not expected to be large.

REVENUE—MAXIMILIAN—SURRATT'S TRIAL —THE CABINET.

WASHINGTON, June 19.

Revenue receipts to-day $546,000.

The Department of State has information that the Court Martial in the case of Maximilian has been suspended for the present.

Judge Fisher has decided that the prosecution need not furnish a list of their witnesses to the defence, and against the right of retaining witnesses for cross examination at any time during the trial. The fact was developed during the argument that the prosecution have seventy witnesses.

Charles H. Blevin, a watchman at the Vermont Central Depot, testified that two men, one of whom let a handkerchief drop, passed J. H. Surratt, slept on the benches at that place on the 17th. of April.

Carroll Hobart, a conductor on the Vermont Central Rail Road, carried the same men, one of whom looked like the prisoner, towards Canada. The counsel agreed to admit the Railroad time tables as evidence.

John T. Triplett, heard a conversation between Mrs. Surratt and the prisoner. Heard Mrs. Surratt say she would give any one, a thousand dollars to kill the President. He thought that he had heard the prisoner, when there was a Union victory cause the Union army.

The defence objected to this, but the prosecution, wanted to show malice and the evidence was admitted.

Further evidence was intended to confirm the impression of Surratt's presence here on the night of the assassination, but nothing striking was developed.

The Cabinet session lasted from ten till half past two, when the President, Stanton and Stanbery had a prolonged interview.

Rear Admiral Stephen C. Rowan has been assigned to the command of the Asiatic squadron.

REGISTRATION IN VIRGINIA.

PETERSBURG, June 19.

In two wards of the city, up to this evening, 486 whites and 1,448 negroes have been registered.

There is much apathy among the whites on the subject of registration.

RICHMOND, June 19.

In the registration in the city to-day, the blacks went 97 ahead of the whites. In the county 50 whites and 2 blacks were registered, and Two citizens have been summoned before the U. S. Commissioner, charged with registering, though they were disfranchised.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION IN CHARLESTON—GEN. SICKLES ASKS TO BE RELIEVED—DUEL.

CHARLESTON, June 19.

The comments upon Gen. Sickles' course, contained in the Attorney General's opinion, published here this morning, created a profound sensation.

Gen. Sickles has to-day forwarded a request to Washington to be relieved from duty as Commander of this Military District, and demanded a Court of enquiry on his official actions.

A duel was fought this afternoon at Hatcher's Avenue, a short distance above the city, between Edward Rose, formerly of Columbia, and Theodore G. Bony, of Charleston. Rose was wounded, it is supposed mortally, at the first fire. Bony surrendered himself promptly to the civil authorities

PACIFIC RAILROAD.

OMAHA, June 19.

The Superintendent of the Pacific Railroad says the work must be abandoned unless there is more protection from the Indians.

NOMINEE FOR GOVERNOR OF OHIO.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 19.

Gen. R. B. Hayes was nominated for Governor on the first ballot to-day.

MEXICAN AFFAIRS.

NEW YORK, June 19.

The Express says it has private, but thoroughly authentic advice that Juarez's forces were severely repulsed at Tampico. The garrison battle-cry was "Viva Santa Anna! viva Republic!"

NEW ORLEANS, June 19.

A paper published at Guadalonpe concludes an article on Europe as follows:

"Heretofore she threatened us, now she implores us. Before she looked upon us with contempt, now she is on her knees before us. The heads of Maximilian and his Generals are imperiously demanded by the Mexican nation.

The Mexican press congratulates themselves that no European power hereafter will be able to coerce them, either into paying debts or any other way. So far they say nothing about us."

SPECIAL NOTICES

KNOW THY DESTINY.

MADAME E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. HEALING SPRINGS,

BATH COUNTY, VA.

THIS DELIGHTFUL WATERING PLACE IS now open for visitors, the buildings have all been painted and put in thorough repair, and will accommodate

THREE HUNDRED PERSONS.

The route from the South is by way of Petersburg, Lynchburg or Richmond, and the Virginia Central Rail Road and its connections, to Millboro' Depot, thence by a daily line of stages, 25 miles, over a turnpike road to the Springs.

The medicinal virtues of the Waters are generally and favorably known. It would be useless, in the limits of an advertisement, to attempt to give a statement of the cures effected by their use. They have proved highly efficacious in the worst cases of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Diseases of the Liver, Bladder, Kidneys, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Asthma, Bronchial Affections, Cutaneous Diseases &c.

HOT AND COLD, SPOUT AND SHOWER BATHS AND PLUNGE BATHS, can be had at all times.

Pure Freestone Water from the Mountains is conveyed through the principal buildings, affording an ample supply for all purposes. After the 1st. of June, there will be a daily mail and a daily line of stages to the Springs.

An experienced Physician will reside at the Springs during the season.

Board $3 per day, $20 per week.

THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 1867.

I MAY BE WEALTHY YET.

A PARODY.

Why is it others have "dimes,"
Have money in profusion—
Why is it greenbacks are to me
Naught but a vain delusion?
No legal tender has of late
My itching fingers met;
How queer it is, and yet perhaps,
I may be wealthy yet!

Oh! when my friends go in to "smile,"
My eyes ache in their sockets,
To think I cannot smile with them,
Because of empty pockets.
Poor, empty purse! you're useless now,
And yet 'tis vain to fret;
"No lane so long but has a turn;"
I may be wealthy yet.

Life is a sorry jest, if we
Meet but the cold world's scorn.
To be forever penniless
Were not worth being born.
Had I but learned in former years
To save, and keep from debt,
I now might have some grounds to say,
I may be wealthy yet!

Idle all day, and oft by night,
I roam from place to place,
What is the use of getting mad?
It would not mend the case.
My feelings are at war with ease;
Why can I not forget
The ills that spring from poverty?
I may be wealthy yet!

The girl I thought I used to love—
For whom I spent my "tin"
Happy when I from her proud heart
One fleeting smile could win.
Full well I loved to gaze into
Her sparkling eyes of jet;
And hear her whisper in my ears,
"You may be wealthy yet!"

I now ne'er gaze upon her face.
When came chill penury
She quickly changed her smiles to frowns,
And coldly turned from me.
She never cared for me a cent;
Upon that you may "bet."
I hope for my sake, not for hers,
I may be wealthy yet!

When midnight mounts her starry throne,
Oft with a wistful eye,
I upward gaze, and almost wish
I, too, were in the sky!
And while my weary head with dew,
And cheeks with tears are wet,
There comes the sweet, consoling thought,
I may be wealthy yet!

Oh! world, vain, pompous, scornful world,
There's nothing very funny,
In being left day after day
Without a cent of money!
And none have I; too well I know
That I'm misfortune's "pet."
Still, if the jade will let me go,
I may be wealthy yet!

There is a place we call the bank—
To me 'tis but a myth—
Where rest the greenbacks and coupons
Of Brown, and Jones, and Smith;
Methinks, could I but enter there,
When sun and moon have set,
And have my own way for awhile,
I might be wealthy yet!

Am I reduced to this at last?
Ah, no, weak heart, be strong;
Let fortune lead you where it will,
It must not lead to wrong.
And though, at present, as you see,
I've pocket room to let;
I still cling to the darling hope,
I may be wealthy yet!

NEW ALBANY, June 6, 1867.

My friend, Major C., had an old darky to whom he was much attached. One evening, at a party, Peter, from imbibing too freely of various mixtures, began dancing around with a waiter containing some ices and cakes, and soon became uproarious.—Observing his conduct, the Major publicly reprimanded him, and at once dismissed him from the post of waiter for the evening, and appointed another in his place. This last stroke was too much for old Peter, and he retired to his bed room in despair. That night Capt. K., a jolly young officer in the room adjoining Peter's, hearing sobs and groans in the next room, rose to inquire what was the matter. He opened the door of Peter's room and .econnoitred.

Peter was kneeling by a window and praying. Amid his loud cries the Captain heard the following:

"O Lord, have pity upon your poor ole servant. His massa, who he used to take upon his knees when he was a boy, is vexed with his poor old darky, and I don't want to live any longer. O, dear Lord, please send the angels for old Peter. Just send the angel Gabriel, this minute, down to take old Peter to Abraham's bosom! O, please, Lord, do! Please, Lord, this minute; I am ready to go!"

Capt. K., ever ready for fun, immediately seized upon a white counterpane, and, enveloping himself in it, rapped three times at Peter's door.

"Who's dar?" exclaimed Peter.

"The angel Gabriel, come to take ole Peter to Father Abraham's bosom!" replied Capt. K., in a sepulchral tone.

"De who, massa?" carefully asked the suppliant.

"Old Peter!"

"Well, I'll just tell you, massa, dat nigger don't live here; I don't know him at all."

Capt K. rushed back to the company convulsed with laughter, and old Peter relates to this day the wonderful answer to his prayer.

"Sure," said Patrick, rubbing his head with delight at the prospect of a present from his employer, "I always mane to do my duty." "I believe you," replied the employer, "and therefore I shall make you a present of all you have stolen from me during the year." "Thank your honor," replied Pat; "and may all your friends and acquaintance trate you as liberally."

"THE CHURCH OF THE STRANGERS,"
NEW YORK,
REV. DR. DEEMS, Pastor.

STRANGERS visiting New York are respectfully informed that a congregation, composed of Christians of different Protestant denominations, has been organized under the pastoral charge of the Rev. CHARLES F. DEEMS, D. D., of North Carolina. Visiting clergymen of the several churches are invited to officiate. No sectarianism, no partisan politics, will be allowed to interfere with the worship.

The service is held morning and night in the Large Chapel of the University, immediately West of the New York Hotel.

The Pastor's residence and post office address is 231 WEST 34th. STREET. Strangers in the city, who are sick or in distress, may freely call upon Dr. Deems for pastoral service.

When any member of any church comes to New York to engage in business, let him call promptly on the Pastor of the Church of the Strangers.—Especially let this be done in the case of young men, who will have a cordial welcome.

Newspapers through the country, friendly to the enterprise, will please copy this advertisement and allow it to stand.

GENERAL ORDER NO. 32.

HEADQUARTERS, 2ND MILITARY DISTRICT,
Charleston, May 30,

General Orders No. 32.

1. Any citizen, a qualified voter according to the requirements of the Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2nd, 1867, and the act supplemental thereto, passed March 23rd, 1867, is eligible to office in the Provisional government of North and South Carolina. All persons appointed to office will be required to take the oath prescribed by the act aforesaid and to file the same duly subscribed and sworn with the Post Commander.

2. All citizens assessed for taxes, and who shall have paid taxes for the current year, are qualified to serve as jurors. It shall be the duty of the proper civil officers, charged with providing lists of jurors, to proceed within their several jurisdictions, without delay, and ascertain the names of all qualified persons, and place them on the jury lists, and from such revised lists all jurors shall be hereafter summoned, and drawn in the manner required by law.

3. All citizens are eligible to follow any licensed calling, employment or avocation, subject to such impartial regulations as may be prescribed by municipal or other competent authority, not inconsistent with common rights and the Constitution and laws of the United States. The bond required as security shall not exceed the penal sum of one hundred dollars. One or more sureties being citizens and worth, in the aggregate, double the amount of the bond, over and above just debts, will be sufficient.

4. The Mayors of cities and other municipal and town officers, and all Sheriffs, Magistrates and Police officers, are required to be vigilant and efficient in maintaining order, and in the discharge of their duties. They will be expected to co-operate with the military authorities.

5. Post commanders may summon to their aid, whenever the ordinary means at their disposal shall not be sufficient to execute their orders, such of the civil officers, and as many of the citizens, within the territorial limits of the military post, as may be necessary, and the neglect or refusal of any person to aid and assist in the execution of the orders of the Commanding officer will be deemed a misdemeanor, punishable by such fine and imprisonment as may be imposed by a military tribunal approved by the Commanding General.

6. No license for the sale of intoxicating liquors in quantities less than one gallon or to be drank on the premises shall be granted to any person other than an Inn-keeper. The number of such licenses shall be determined, and the fees to be charged for each license shall be prescribed and collected, by the municipal or town authorities and appropriated exclusively for the benefit of the poor. If any person shall be found drunk on the premises where liquor is sold, the license may be revoked by any magistrate. The tax imposed by the Internal Revenue laws of the United States is an additional charge and does not excuse the person from the observance of local regulations, nor exempt him from the payment of such other license fees as may be imposed by the municipal or other competent authorities.

7. All contracts hereafter made for the manufacture, sale or transportation, storage or insurance of intoxicating liquors shall within this military district be deemed and treated as against public policy, and no civil action, suit or proceedings for the enforcement of any such contract shall be entertained in any court.

8. The public conveyances on railroads, highways, streets & navigable waters, no discrimination because of color or caste shall be made, and the common rights of all citizens therein shall be recognized and respected. The violation of this regulation will be deemed a misdemeanor and render the offender liable to arrest and trial by a Military tribunal to be designated by the commanding General, besides such damages as the injured party may sue for and recover in the civil Courts.

9. The remedy by distress for rent is abolished. Where lands are leased, or let out for hire or rent, cotton, corn or other produce of the same, when severed from the land, may be impounded, but the same shall not be removed. Any cotton, corn or other produce so impounded shall be held as security for the rent or hire so claimed and may be sold in satisfaction of any judgment for the same, Provided, that any unsatisfied claim for labor bestowed upon the cultivation of such cotton, corn, or other produce, shall, in no case, be postponed to any demand for rent or hire. But to the extent of such claim for labor there shall be a lien on such cotton, corn and other produce having preference over any claim for rent or hire.

By command of
MAJ. GEN. SICKLES,
J. W. CLOUS, A. A. A. G.

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 2d, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX.
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,
President of the Senate pro tem.

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4th. section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said offices and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

1867. SPRING TRADE. 1867.
ATTRACTIVE STOCK.
McILWAINE & CO.,
Wholesale Dealers in Foreign and Domestic
Dry Goods, Notions & Clothing,
NO. 79 SYCAMORE, and
NO. 1 TABB STREETS,
PETERSBURG, VIRGINIA,
Take pleasure in announcing to the trade that they have in store, ready for exhibition, a large assortment of
NEW SPRING GOODS,
embracing all articles usually kept in wholesale establishments. Their long business experience with the merchants of Virginia and North Carolina, has made them familiar with their wants; this, together with the advantages they possess in purchasing their supplies, enables them to offer goods at such prices as will insure satisfaction. They specially invite the attention of buyers to their extensive stock of
READY-MADE CLOTHING,
manufactured expressly to their own order, which for style, workmanship and cheapness cannot be surpassed. They would also call attention to a full line of
NOTIONS,
All of which will be offered to purchasers on the very best terms, by Capt. Edward Graham and Mr. John McNeece, who have charge of the department.
